FAQ about High School Selection

- If your high school does not appear in the drop-down list after entering the name, please ask your counselor for your school's CEEB code or look up your school's CEEB code through this College Board website and enter that code in the drop-down list.
- If it does not appear using either your school name or CEEB code, send an email to scholars@coca-cola.com with your name, the email address you used for your application, and all high school details IN THIS FORMAT to help us add your school faster: "CEEB Code - School Name Street Address City State Zip School Type"...no commas or punctuation, please. For example: "012345 - Coke High School 1 Coca-Cola Plaza Atlanta GA 30301 Public"
- If you attend an independent Home School program, enter high school code 000000; this will populate "Home School."
- If you are a home school student, you may enter the name and contact information of the individual who would send a final transcript for college application in both the Principal and Counselor fields below.
- Note that neither your principal nor counselor will receive an automatic email or any communications from the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation. Should a question arise from your application submission, the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation may contact one or both of your principal and counselor to verify the information.

Academic Information

Academic Information

To be considered for the next stage of this scholarship, you must submit at least three (3) grades in each core area below (English, Math, Science, and Social Studies).

- If you do not enter three (3) grades in each core area, your application will not be evaluated.
 - In the event that an applicant is currently enrolled in the third course in a core area, indicate "In Progress/No Grade," and the application will be reviewed.
- Submit ONLY courses that appear on your high school or dual-enrollment/college course transcript. Self-study courses outside of an official high school/dual enrollment/college program of study (including self-study to take an AP or other exam if the course is not offered by a school) should NOT be submitted.
- Submit as many courses as space allows for courses taken at the high school level or higher.
- You may not have a space to submit every course in a subject area.
- If you have more courses than the allowed number of submissions, you may enter your best grades; courses do not need to be entered in chronological order.
- For each course, enter the title of the course taken; for example, "Introduction to Literature."
- Check "In Progress" in the Class Status box and "No Grade" in the Grade box to indicate classes in which you are currently enrolled.
- Enter only courses projected through December of this year. If there is a spring-only course you have not yet started, please do not submit that information.
- Refer to your most recent transcript in completing this section. Applicants who advance to phase two of this scholarship process must submit an official transcript to verify grades; be accurate and honest in your submissions.
- If your school does not assign final letter or numerical grades or if your school converted to pass/fail grades due to COVID, ask your teachers/counselors for advice on the best equivalent that aligns with our list.
- Other than commonly understood abbreviations (i.e., AP, IB, US), do not use acronyms when listing the name of your courses; spell out the complete names of the courses.
- For courses for which there are no final grades, only term grades, use the higher of the term grades.

The Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation does not request nor accept any supplemental information, including high school transcripts, letters of recommendation, essays, personal statements, head shots, or any other items during this phase of the application process. Any item mailed, emailed, or faxed to the Foundation will be recycled.

Will you be graduating high school early (in fewer than the typical four full years)?

School Activities

School-Based and Academic-Oriented Activities

The activities in this section of the application are to include only those sponsored by your school or that may be considered primarily academic/intellectual in nature, even if not directly linked to a course.

Community organizations, community volunteer activities, civic clubs, and employment information that are not sponsored/hosted by your school are to be reported in later sections of the application.

If an activity takes place beyond the school but eligibility to participate is based on being a student at your school or has a teacher/administrator as a sponsor, submit that activity in this section.

Enter only activities projected through December of this year. If there is a spring-only activity you have not yet started, please do not submit that information.

If you do not yet know of a leadership role in an activity, enter level your of leadership or involvement that is true and accurate at the time of submission of this application.

Report any activity only once in the application.

Note: Each year, approximately 200,000 high school students from among 48,000-plus schools complete a Coke Scholar application profile. Our application is designed to accommodate the most common activities and accomplishments from among such a large potential pool. If you have a unique activity or accomplishment, please consult with a counselor or school official for guidance on where to best submit this information in this application.

At this stage, we do not require or need an explanation of any club/organization/activity; only the name, duration/years of involvement, and levels of leadership and involvement are required here. Those details will be requested for those who advance to the Phase 2/Semifinalist stage.

Does your school limit the number of leadership roles/extracurricular activities:

No
